Helpful tips for managing your account.

How to know what you have available in your account to spend.

In determining what you have available in your account to spend, and to help avoid overdrafts, it is important to know the difference between your Available Balance and your Current Balance.

- Your Current Balance is the previous Business Day's ending balance, plus or minus the full amount of any transaction made during the current Business Day (e.g., checks that you have written, electronic transfers, or automatic payments), provided that Santander is aware of such transactions.
 - A Business Day is every day except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays.
- Your Available Balance is the amount of your Current Balance that is available for immediate use.
 - Certain pending transactions, such as deposits that contain checks or withdrawals that have not yet posted, may not be included in the Available Balance.

Helpful tips to keep you aware of your Available Balance.

- Use the Quick Balance feature on the Mobile App to instantly view your Available Balance on up to five (5) accounts — without even logging in.
 - Alternatively, log in to Mobile or Online Banking to view your Available Balance.
- Keep track of items that may post to your account in the future.
 - For example, checks you have written that are still outstanding as well as recurring or upcoming scheduled online bill payments.
 - These items will not be reflected in the Available Balance, but they will impact your Available Balance once processed.

When funds from your deposit become available.

Different types of deposits become available at different times. The table below is a general summary of our Funds Availability Policy. Please review the Funds Availability Policy in your Personal Deposit Account Agreement for a full description of our policy.

Description of Deposit	When the funds are available
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cash deposits • Direct deposits • Other electronic deposits and wire transfers 	Same Business Day that we receive the deposit.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Checks drawn on a Santander account • U.S. Treasury checks • The first $225 of all checks you deposit on a Business Day 	No later than the Next Business Day.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Remainder of all other checks 	No later than the Second Business Day.

- Note: In some cases, we may delay availability to withdraw funds beyond the periods described above. If we do so, we will notify you. If this does happen, the funds will generally be available on the sixth (6th) Business Day after the Business Day of deposit.
- Helpful Tip: A Business Day is every day except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If you make a deposit on a non-Business Day, your date of deposit is the next Business Day.

The order that Santander processes your transactions.

At the end of each Business Day, we process transactions on your account and post them in the following order:

1. All deposits (such as direct deposits, teller deposits, and ATM deposits).
2. ATM cash withdrawals, one-time debit card purchases, withdrawals at a teller, account transfers (Online Banking, ATM, Mobile Banking, and Telephone Banking). These transactions are posted in the order you make them. If we don't receive the date and time, we will post these transactions from lowest to highest dollar amount.
3. Wire transfers, electronic Santander loan payments (such as loans, lines of credit, and credit card payments to your Santander credit accounts), and recurring debit card purchases (such as a gym membership) are posted from lowest to highest dollar amount.
4. Checks you write, recurring transfers in Online and Mobile Banking, bill payments made using Online and Mobile Banking, and ACH payment transactions, sorted from lowest to highest dollar amount.
5. Fees and adjustments will generally be ordered last and posted from lowest to highest dollar amount unless, at our discretion, we deem it more appropriate to process the fee directly after an associated transaction.

Santander Private Client Program Eligibility.

Each Service Fee Period, you are required to maintain a minimum combined balance of $250,000 in bank deposits (consumer and certain business products*) and eligible investments held with Santander Investment Services. If you do not maintain the minimum combined balance, we reserve the right to change your Santander Private Client accounts to other applicable product types, for which you may be charged the Monthly Fee and any other applicable fees. If we do so, we will notify you.

We will calculate your minimum combined balance by adding the following balances:

- The total average daily available balance of your consumer checking, savings, or money market savings Account during the Service Fee Period applicable to your Santander Private Client Checking account.
- The total average daily available balance of eligible business checking, savings, and money market savings accounts during the Service Fee Period applicable to your Santander Private Client Checking account.
- The balance in any Certificate of Deposit (CD) and Individual Retirement Account (IRA) CD as of the last Business Day of the Service Fee Period applicable to your Santander Private Client Checking account.
- The balance of your eligible investments held by Santander Investment Services as of the last Business Day of the prior calendar month.

Notes: The minimum combined balance is calculated using the balances in any eligible deposit Account or eligible investment account held by any of the owners listed on the Santander Private Client Checking account. If any eligible Accounts are closed during the Service Fee Period applicable to your Santander Private Client Checking account, those balances will not be included in the minimum combined balance calculation.
