Press Release

SANTANDER SELECT™ PERSONALIZED BANKING SERVICES NOW AVAILABLE AT LINCOLN BRANCH

Specialized Program Meets the Unique Needs of Affluent Clients

BOSTON, October 8, 2015 – Santander Bank, N.A. announced today that Santander Select™ Services are now available at its Lincoln branch on 622 George Washington Highway. The Lincoln location is the first Santander branch in Rhode Island to offer Santander Select’s personalized banking and investment services.

Santander Select is a specialized program designed for affluent clients who desire a more personal approach to meeting their financial goals, needs, and priorities. Among the program’s many benefits, clients have access to a personal banker, a dedicated suite of Santander’s most valuable products and investment services along with many complimentary features. Santander Select bankers have extensive training and work with clients to understand their short and long-term needs. Select bankers partner with financial consultants to tailor strategies to meet the client’s individual financial goals and risk tolerance.

Other Select privileges include access to Santander Select Member Services, a dedicated VIP direct service line; no fee access to more than 30,000 Santander ATMs globally for Select World MasterCard Debit Card holders; no international transaction fee for debit card purchases, a concierge service, trip insurance, and priority access to airport lounges.

“The personal banking expertise we have added to our network further helps our customers with sophisticated banking needs,” said Brian Azar, Santander region president for Southern and Western New England. “With Santander Select, we can deepen our one-on-one relationships with our clients, help them maximize the value of their financial portfolios and grow their wealth.”

Launched in Boston and New York City in March 2014, Santander Select is currently available to clients at 21 branch locations in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania with plans to expand this service across the Bank’s footprint in the northeastern United States. The service complements the Bank’s current products and services to create the greatest value for customers’ complex financial needs and goals.

“Santander Select will enhance our customers’ banking experience at the Lincoln branch,” said Debra Lafferty, Santander Select Banker in Lincoln. “With personalized services, our customers will find the Santander Select program to be an ideal match to help them make the right financial choices, plan for retirement and realize their specific financial goals.”
