Facts

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us.

This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history
- Credit history and credit scores

How?

All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business—to process transactions, maintain customer accounts, and report to credit bureaus.

In the section below, we list reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the information Santander chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?
Santander Bank, N.A.

What we do

| How does Santander Bank protect my personal information? | To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. Only employees, companies that work on our behalf, and other parties, as required or permitted by law, are allowed access to your information. |
| How does Santander Bank collect my personal information? | We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
- Open an account or deposit money.
- Pay your bills or apply for a loan.
- Use your credit card or debit card.
We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies. |
| Why can’t I limit all sharing? | Federal law gives you the right to limit only:
- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness.
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you.
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you.
State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law. |
| What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? | Your choices will apply individually, unless you choose to express a preference for all account holders on your account. |

Definitions

| Affiliates | Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies.
- Our affiliates include companies with the word “Santander” in their name.
- Our affiliates include financial companies such as Banco Santander, S.A., Santander Puerto Rico, Santander Holdings USA, Inc., Santander Consumer USA, Santander Securities LLC, and Santander Insurance Agency U.S. LLC. |
| Non-affiliates | Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies.
- Santander does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you. |
| Joint marketing | A formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.
- Our joint marketing partners include credit card and insurance companies. |

Other important information

SPECIAL NOTICE FOR CALIFORNIA AND VERMONT RESIDENTS: If your account has a California mailing address, we will not market any products or services to you, nor will we share your information with our marketing partners for them to market to you. If your account has a Vermont mailing address, we will share with our marketing partners only that information that is permitted by law. Residents of California and Vermont do not have to take any further action to limit the sharing of information; such limits are already in place.

FOR NEVADA RESIDENTS: We are providing you this notice pursuant to Nevada law.
